

Sharon D. Melloy

Judge Melloy sat in the Family Court in Hong Kong for over 15 years from 2007 – 2022. During that period of time she undertook a great deal of “children work” and was instrumental inter alia, in the introduction of the Children’s Dispute Resolution (CDR) protocol.

Prior to her career on the bench, she held a variety of different posts including a stint in academia and as a solicitor in private practice, where she focused primarily on family work. She is also an accredited family law mediator.

Judge Melloy is married with two adult daughters and a giant Rhodesian ridgeback – who occasionally takes her out for a walk.

Sharon D. Melloy

Retired Family Court Judge:
Hong Kong